KING GOEBEL SPEAKS.

Bill's Eloquent Oration at the New Central Last Night.

WORDS THAT WILL LIVE LONG.

Bill Goebel, nicknamed the King, who stole the nomination and is going to try his hand at stealing the Governorship, spoke at Mr. Olcott yesterday.

To counteract the effect of Hon. John Young Brown's speech in the city Monday, several of Goebel's henchmen went out to Mr. Olcott and hailed him, into town last night.

He was met by a brass band and several other wind instruments and escorted to the New Central.

The street was filled with dust and electric lights, when the Hon. Thomas Danabuehse in slattery appeared upon the balcony and in a very neat speech introduced his Nib, who was cheered with a cheer.

With his coat of mail buttoned up to the throat buttons, the eminent statesman bowed & smiled, smiled a smile and spoke a speech; and this was what he said:

"Fellow-citizens of the City of Maysville: I do not intend to say anything more again and do that little thing. Good night."

And away how the woodcock!

The band tooted a note, the woodcock tooted a note, the woodcock tooted a note, and the woodcock tooted a note.

CONFERENCE CLOSED.

Rev. F. W. Harrop Returned as Pastor of the M. E. Church in This City.

THE KENTUCKY NORTHERN M. E. Church Conference closed Monday after a week's session at Grace M. E. Church, Newport.

Memorial services to the late Rev. H. B. Blaisdell of Covington and Dr. B. P. T. Harts of Shelbyville were held.

Immediately after the Conference closed the marriage of Lafayette Davis of Harlan county and Miss Virginia Harvey, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William Harriet of Cincinnati, took place in the presence of the entire Conference. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. S. Miller, Presiding Elder of the Middleborough District, assisted by Rev. Charles Harriet, a brother of the bride.

Bishop Finckler decided to continue the charges against all the Ministers who use tobacco until the General Conference in Chicago. Some of the Ministers who were charged with being tobacco users were highly indignant over the charges preferred and claimed spite work.

A resolution was adopted, by a unanimous vote of the Conference, requesting President McKinley to use his influence as President of the United States to secure the pardon and release of Captain Alfred Dreyfus, in the name of Christian humanity. A copy of the resolution was ordered sent to the President immediately. Several remarks were made on the resolution, all of which denounced the judges who convicted Dreyfus, as they believed him innocent.

KING OF KENTON

Will Be Repudiated by Loyal Employees of L. & N.

THEY DETEST GOEBELISM.

Great Amount of Money Distributed by This Corporation.

A BAND OF RAILROAD WRECKERS.

Members of the Louisville Convention and Some of His Supporters Are Accused of Seeking to Destroy a Great Railroad System.

Demagogues, charged with fraud, with violence and with treachery, Goebel repudiated by a majority of his own party associates; Blackburn, who has turned his back on his old friends that he might serve Goebel more ably, the Courier-Journal, a confidential agent, who has grown rich from corporate favors extended to it, are trying now to arouse the enthusiasm of their dwindling army by assailing the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, and promising to deliver it over to their followers, to be marked as of old king and conquerors ready elites to satisfy their unpaid salaries.

It is a favorite device of men employed in dark designs to raise a new cry that attention may be diverted to their own evil deeds. The Evening Post does not propose to be so diverted, but merely to make known to the people what interests are involved in this onslaught, and what public services are rendered by the Louisville and Nashville corporation. We propose merely to analyze their earnings for July, published last week in the Evening Post.

The gross earnings of this whole system for the month were $2,166,232.

This represents the actual returns for services rendered the public. It is not extortion, nor is it robbery. The rates for travel and transportation have been steadily declining for years, declining just in proportion as the service has improved and the business has increased.

It is said there should be a maximum rate fixed by law, maximum rates are so fixed by the highest law known to the road; fixed in the very charter that gives it its existence.

But no read is unwise enough to exact these maximum rates. The vast decline in rates was not even dreamed of when the charter was granted, and today they are less than one-fourth what they were.

This decline has proceeded without legislation, without oppression, without dictation from demagogues; it has followed the law of self-interest and has been made in obedience to the law of competition, which no monopoly can successfully competition of place with place; of product with product.

The Evening Post does not assert that all its rates are so low, or that it does assert that they more nearly approach justice and wisdom under competition than they ever would under the arbitrary action of politicians who make common cause with such railroad wreckers as William Goebel.

But now to the expenses, which must be paid from these receipts. Goebell's tale of monopoly and extortion, of Belmont and Rothschild, is all this money went to the stockholders.

As a matter of fact, for months little or none of it went there, and for years not a dollar went to the stockholders.

Out of the $2,166,000 received two-thirds, or $1,455,000, was consumed in operating expenses.

Consumed—that is in wages to the trainmen and shopmen, wages to the station agents and to the men employed in all departments of the road. Consumed again in buying supplies of every imaginable kind from rails and bridges to cotton waste.

It is this monthly expenditure of nearly a million and a half dollars to destroy this system, and the kind of business all over the south, and especially here in Kentucky.

Think of it, a million and a half a month; eighteen million dollars annually; fifty thousand dollars a day all the year round spent in wages and in supplies—spent that these men and their families may be made comfortable for the winter; spent that business may be good at almost every crossroads. Some goes to the mines in the mountains; some finds its way to the cooperage; to the cooperage, to the makers of rails, to men cutting ties on the hill slope; everywhere it falls like a refreshing rain on a thousand fields, blessing ten thousand homes and making the whole country to blossom like a rose.

Now these railroad wreckers, Goebel, Blackburn and Watterson, are seeking to destroy this system, are declaring their purpose to destroy it, and are enraged because they see what a storm they have raised.

The men who urge the Louisville and Nashville are picked men, loyal men, and patriotic men. They know their company has never had an evil design against the state; they know their company to be the largest taxpayer in the state, and they know that today it is doing more to develop the great resources than Goebel and other sharks, who hand over the dead or the injured with a contract for 85 per cent of all they can reach from the company—doing more for the state's advancement in a day than Goebel and Goebellism could do in a generation.

Then, the state, loyal and picked men know that it was not Belmont, not Milton Smith, not Basil Duke who outraged the people of Campbell, defied the people of Warren, raided the polls in Louisville, betrayed Stone and debauched the convention.

These picked men know it was not Belmont, Milton Smith or Basil Duke who billeted the legislature and compelled it to pass the Goebel election law, intended to deprive these very men of the right of suffrage, and they know moreover who was the guilty man.

Consequently they propose first as patriotic citizens, next as men who protect their own interests, and third as faithful employees, to crush Goebel and Goebellism, to overthrow now and forever this King of Kenton, and to relieve the state of a menace which, on the eve of an era of returning property, threatens to make the very name of Kentucky a badge of shame and ignorance—Louisville Evening Post (Dem.), Sept. 5.

TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

James Forsythe Married Miss Ollie Simpson Against Her Father's Wish.

THEY ELOPED FROM HOME SATURDAY.

When the Father Learned of the Wedding He Armed Himself and Went to Forsyth's Home.

His Badly Wounded His Son-in-Law, Killed the Father, and Was Presented From Shooting His Daughter—Simpson Then Put a Bullet in His Brain.

LONGVIEW, Tex., Sept. 13.—Panola county, and especially Beckville, is excited over a terrible tragedy. The trouble started with the marriage of Jas. Forsythe, a prominent young man, and Miss Ollie Simpson, a belle of the neighborhood. It seems that Forsythe did not have the approval of the girl's father, Andrew Simpson, for the hand of his daughter, but, with several young men in the neighborhood, he succeeded in eloping with the young lady and they were married Saturday night. This so angered the old gentleman, that when he learned of the wedding Monday evening, he saddled up his horse and loaded a double-barreled shotgun and took his pistol, declaring he would kill the whole party concerned. As he rode up to Forsythe's home he saw his son-in-law fleeing through the orchard. He brought him down with seven pucks in the groin, leaving him for dead. He then rode toward the house. King I. Forsythe, father of James, came out unarmed to see what the trouble was and was instantly killed with a load of buckshot in the abdomen. Simpson then dismounted and ran into the house with his pistol, saying he would kill his daughter, but the mother of James Forsythe ran between them and held his pistol until the girl was helped away. Simpson then walked out to the front gate, put the pistol to his forehead, killing himself instantly. Young Forsythe is desperately wounded but may recover. All stores in Beckville are closed and business in general is suspended on account of the tragedy.

BANTAM CHAMPIONSHIP.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Terry McGovern, of Brooklyn, whipped Pedlar Palmer, of London, thoroughly, in less than one round, at the Bantam championship fight, near Tuxedo, N. Y., Tuesday afternoon. With the victory went the title of bantam champion of the world, although both contestants were actually in the feather-weight class.

Tom O'Rourke, on behalf of Dixon, challenged the winner at 110 pounds for $5,000 a side.

Oscar Gardner's manager also challenged the winner on behalf of the "Omaha Kid" at any weight from 114 pounds up for $10,000 a side.

PARDON FOR DREYFUS.

President Loubet, However, Will Not Use His Prerogative After the Meeting of the Council De Revision.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Chronicle claims to have good authority for the statement that Dreyfus will be pardoned, although President Loubet will not exercise his prerogative until after the meeting of the council de revision. He adds that Capt. Ravais and Maj. Iren were the only two members of the court-martial who voted for acquittal and it was Capt. Parfait who insisted upon the pardon regarding extenuating circumstances.

The Spanish bark steamer Waikato, LUTHERON, N. Z., Sept. 13.—The Spanish bark Aalborg, Capt. Klausen, from Hamburg, May 29, which has arrived at this port, reports that she spoke the ore-steamer British steamer Waikato, from London, May 4, for Lytleton, August 2, in latitude 39 south, longitude 98 east, with her shaft broken. Otherwise all was well with the vessel. The latter, of the Waikato were transferred to the Aalborg.

Fishing Vessels Destroyed.

Nine New Cases and One Death.

FOUR NEW CASES.

The Dread Yellow Fever Still Lingers in the City of New Orleans.

NO DEATHS WERE REPORTED TUESDAY.

The Health Board at a Meeting Decided Not to Quarantine Against Other Infected Points.

Vicksburg, Natchez and Most Prominent Towns of Western Mississippi are Facing the Large Louisiana Towns to Quarantine Against New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—Four new cases of fever were announced by the state board of health Tuesday, three of which have been under supervision for several days. No deaths were reported. At a meeting of the board Tuesday morning it was determined not to quarantine against infected points. There would be no reason for such a course, inasmuch as Mississippi cases were generally closed here doors against this city, and Texas and Alabama are bent on maintaining their quarantines. Vicksburg, Natchez and most prominent towns of Western Mississippi are facing the larger Louisiana towns to quarantine against New Orleans although the Louisiana state board has taken no action. Monroe was warned Tuesday that unless she quarantined against New Orleans, Vicksburg would quarantine her. This policy will be detrimental to business interests, for there are few towns in Louisiana which would quarantine unless forced to do so. There have been only seven cases of fever here altogether and the city was never in better health.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 13.—Dr. Brenner, health officer of Savannah and a noted authority, after a close inspection of Port Tampa city, wired Savannah Tuesday not to institute quarantine, as there is absolutely no danger. Dr. Horner reports from Miami that there is nothing suspicious there, nor has there been a case, except that of the refugee from Key West, who was isolated in the bay. There is not a suspicious case on the mainland of Florida.

NO SECRET ALLIANCE.

The United States Has Not Forgotten the Was Precept and Example of the Fathers of the Republic.

COLEMAN, Mo., Sept. 13.—In a letter to Chairman Dick, of the republican state committee, Sen. Hon. John H. Poy, secretary of state, makes this emphatic statement regarding the alleged secret alliance between England and the United States:

"There is no alliance with England nor with any other power under heaven except those known and published to the world, the treaties of ordinary international friendship for purposes of peace and commerce. No treaty other than these exists; none has been suggested on either side; none is in contemplation. It has never entered into the mind of the president or of any member of his cabinet to discuss, under any inducement, the precept and example of the fathers, which forbade entering alliances with European powers."

REMOVED FOR NEGLIGENCE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Mr. Fred Gunn, superintendent of construction of the public buildings at Kansas City, has been removed, on evidence of negligence, and Mr. Richard Forchey, formerly of New Orleans, and recently superintendent of the Washington City post office building, has been appointed to the vacancy.

GREAT FESTIVALS.

Senior Juan Isidro Jimenes, Aspirant to the Presidency, Arrives at Santo Domingo.

IT PRESENTS THE COUNTRY IS QUIET.

The Most Difficult Part to Be Settled Is the Financial Situation of the Government.

It is Not Known When the Election Will Take Place—Senior Jimenes Proposes a Liberal Government Based on Strict Honesty and Equity.

SANTO DOMINGO, Sept. 13.—Senior Juan Isidro Jimenes, the aspirant to the presidency of Santo Domingo, arrived here Tuesday on board the Dominican war ship Presidente. His arrival was the cause of great festivals and expression of satisfaction. It is not known as yet when the election will take place. At present the country is quiet. The most difficult part to be settled is the financial situation of the government, the paper money being one of the principal causes of the bad condition of affairs. How this will be fixed is difficult to foresee. Business is still very much depressed. Importations are very limited and the war has been of many articles, principally provisions.

The manifesto of Senior Jimenes proposes a liberal government based on strict honesty and equity. He calls for reform of the treasury if duties, advocates a strict gold basis and is in favor of the withdrawal of the present circulating national coin and paper money. He also recommends the facilitating of immigration and full guarantees to citizens and foreigners and improvements of roads, ports and public works.

News about the departure of a Clyde line steamer from New York is anxiously awaited, provisions being scarce. The provisional president has already announced that the provisional government would take no constructive action until the arrival of Gen. Jimenes, who is apparently expected to be a unimpeachable direction of affairs.

The importance of the money question is seen from the fact that the paper currency, the only currency in Santo Domingo, circulated at some points in the ratio of fifty to one, and it is understood that Senior Jimenes intends to repudiate a certain part of the issue. It is not unlikely that some trouble will arise. In any event an official announcement showing precisely what is to be done is anxiously awaited by business houses.

CORNELIUS VANDERBILT.

The New York Multi-Millionaire Died at His Home from Cerebral Hemorrhage at His Fifty-ninth Year.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Cornelius Vanderbilt, head of the Vanderbilt family, died at his residence in this city at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning from a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Vanderbilt was in his 59th year. No physician was in attendance. The attack was very sudden and entirely unexpected, and it was impossible to reach any physician before death occurred. Dr. Francis Delafield, who had been attending Mr. Vanderbilt, arrived at the house after Mr. Vanderbilt's death had occurred.

Vanderbilt's children, Gladys and Reginald, are in Newport, R. I. Many erroneous statements were made concerning the circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Vanderbilt, and Senator Chauncey M. Depew gave the following statement late Tuesday afternoon:

Mr. Vanderbilt left Newport Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the purpose of attending a meeting of the directors of the New York Central and Hudson River railroad which was to be held Tuesday evening. He was feeling well and had no premonition of approaching death. He reached this city about 9 o'clock Monday night and went to bed about 10 o'clock. He awoke up in the morning about 3 o'clock and complained of feeling very ill. He called his wife and she immediately sent for a physician. Mr. Vanderbilt died within a few minutes and before any physician arrived. Dr. Delafield, who had been attending him, when he arrived pronounced the cause of death to be cerebral hemorrhage. The use of death was so sudden the coroner was not notified and there will be a formal inquest.

"There will be a meeting of the Vanderbilt lines next Thursday to pass appropriate resolutions of respect to Mr. Vanderbilt. All the members of the family have either called in on Lawrence creek, Mason county, Kentucky. This land is a portion of the farm of the late George L. Furrow, deceased, and is located about three-and-a-half miles from Mayville, Ky. It is known as Walnut Sugar Tree and Burr Oak land, and is very productive. It has one small dwelling house, two cow barns, a corn crib and a stable. The water is very pure.
